Opening comments were made by tribal leaders and elders regarding the importance of water in Native American spiritual beliefs, the purpose of the Walking Water journey to the Owens Lake, and today's ceremony marking the start of the journey.

Mono County Supervisors were invited to speak, and the following comments were made:

Chairman Fesko:

- Thanked the group for inviting Mono County to participate. Felt it was good to see so many different groups and individuals present. Introduced the officials and employees of Mono County who were at the ceremony: Vice Chair Stump; Supervisors Alpers, Corless, and Johnston; Lynda Salcido, Marshall Rudolph, Leslie Chapman, Bob Musil, and Stacey Simon. Encouraged all of the participants to be safe.

Supervisor Stump:

- Feels that there is a lot of good energy here at the opening ceremonies, compared it to yoga and meditation.
